Raising the primitive camping fees to $20 is ridiculous. We are willing to pay an increase to maybe 10 or 12 dollars but most state parks we go don't have access to fresh water. The areas to camp are overgrown and are not maintained. If I see some of those changes to improve our camping experience I would be willing to pay a higher fee. I don't see any improvement coming so unwilling to pay $12 a day to primitive camp. Also if you raise the fees for State Parks the campers will head to the National forests and overwhelm that environment. We enjoy our State Parks. We would be very sad if we can't afford to go to them anymore.
